MATERIAL & DIGITAL CULTURE COLLECTIONS

- 2020-22 Directed international team collaborating with the Urarina indigenous peoples of Peruvian Amazonia on the Digital Repatriation of their material culture held in the ethnographic collections at the Spencer Museum, University of Kansas. This work resulted in the 2022 creation of a web-based platform with Urarina consultation that provides virtual access to their material culture housed at KU. I debuted the results of the collaborative Urarina-research team project at the V Congreso de la Asociación Argentina de Humanidades Digitales, Universidad Nacional del Comahue (UNCo), Sede General Roca in November
- 2021-22 Oversaw the digitization of numerous hours of Urarina tape-recordings I made during fieldwork I conducted in the 1990s and early 2000s. In coordination with members of the Department of Linguistics at the University of California, Berkeley, the materials are now housed for systematic analysis at the California Language Archive for materials related to the Indigenous languages of the Americas
